Where to Start...

If you cannot afford to buy your prescription medications...	Most drug manufacturers offer a limited supply of free prescription medication to eligible patients. These Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Patient Assistance Programs (PAPs) have different application forms and eligibility requirements. The pharmaceutical companies supply these applications for free. For more information about PAPs, ask: your doctor, your pharmacist or look in the PhRMA directory (to obtain the directory call 800-762-4636 or visit www.phrma.org). For more complete information you can search online at: www.rxassist.org Searchable database allows you to search for PAPs by company, brand name, generic name and drug class. The information includes eligibility and application instructions. Internet access necessary. www.medicare.gov/Prescription/Home.asp Based on the information you enter, the site searches for programs in your state or programs for certain diagnosis or medication. Internet access necessary.
If you would like assistance filling out PAPs....	Applications for Patient Assistance Programs are free if you call the pharmaceutical company directly. There are programs that will help you obtain and complete the necessary paperwork for a fee. If your PAP application is denied, each program has a different refund policy. Ask about refund policies and services provided before sending any money. Some programs are: <table style="width: 100%; border: none;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%; vertical-align: top;"> The Medicine Program www.themedicineprogram.com/ (573) 996-7300 </td> <td style="width: 50%; vertical-align: top;"> The Patient Assistance Network www.patientassistancenetwork.org Toll-free: 202-595-1038 </td> </tr> <tr> <td colspan="2" style="vertical-align: top;"> We Care Medical Mall www.wecaremedicalmall.org Toll-free: 800-380-MEDS (6337) </td> </tr> </table>	The Medicine Program www.themedicineprogram.com/ (573) 996-7300	The Patient Assistance Network www.patientassistancenetwork.org Toll-free: 202-595-1038	We Care Medical Mall www.wecaremedicalmall.org Toll-free: 800-380-MEDS (6337)
